Also in attendance: Deputy Town Clerk (DTC)

The meeting opened at 6.45pm with Cllr Cole welcoming Cllrs.

FC202400113 Apologies for absence – Cllrs Simpson, Hudson, Carlson, Reeves,

FC202400114 Declaration of Interest – Cllr Schlanker declared an interest in HAHA

FC202400115 Consider a new Grant Application Request from Hungerford Guides & Brownies for funding from HTC and ratify payment of the award is successful

Cllr Cole requested DTC provide an update on the request from Hungerford Guides & Brownies. DTC confirmed that the guides and brownies would be camping in a 'tented village' with other guiding groups and whilst their parents/carers had paid for this, they were seeking additional funds so they could go on a cinema trip, a celebratory meal out or a visit to an animal centre. They were already fund raising by packing bags in the local supermarket, cake sale and selling bacon rolls at a local farmers market so were seeking additional funds.

Proposed: Cllr Cole

Seconded: Cllr Schlanker

Resolution: HTC approved and ratified the grant request from Hungerford Guides & Brownies.

FC202400116: Consider the 2024/2025 Grant Application requests received for funding from HTC and ratify payments of awards to successful recipients as recommended by F, G & P Committee.

Cllr Winser gave a summary of 2024 – 2025 grant applications and confirmed the funding was slightly less than last year due to there being less in the budget. Most applicants had their funding requests approved and if there were several projects from the same application, a project was chosen and a set sum allocated to that applicant. Those not on The Good Exchange had a sum of money ring fenced until HTC receives confirmation of Good Exchange Grant Number.

Individual applicants, not applicable to go on The Good Exchange, had funding agreed and it was confirmed that the DTC would write to them separately to inform them.

Proposed: Cllr Winser
Seconded: Cllr Cole
Resolution: HTC approved and ratified grant request from
